

I urge the FCC to consider calling sanctions against Sinclair Broadcasting for their decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary. Sinclair is clearly using their corporate power to influence this political campaign, which should be considered contrary to their obligation to serve the public interest, as they use the public airwaves free of charge. While I always hope that news sources will provide even-handed coverage of the candidates, I have been disappointed throughout this election and this particular situation is particularly grievous. Please take action against Sinclair Broadcasting.

Urgently,

Sara Deuling
